

The Officer John F. Super Criminalistics CSI Scholarship Award is given once a year to a Junior or Senior in a Highschool who embodies the example set by Officer John F. Super and demonstrates financial need.

Students must be recommended by a Faculty member at their school and be pursuing a career in Criminology or Criminal Justice. Students must also:

- Submit application to Blenda Crawford by Sept. 30th, 2009
- Be approved by the CSI award selection committee
  - Have demonstrated need
  - Be a role model

This award entitles recipient to attend the CSI:Regis University Conference without entry fee.